

CRISTINA L. KRASOW

Cristina Krasow has worked in the Washington policy arena for 15 years. Ms. Krasow is an expert in Senate parliamentary procedures and possesses a deep tactical understanding of Senate legislative and political processes. She uses this unique expertise to design and execute strategies to meet our client's objectives and to represent their interests before Congress and the Administration. Ms. Krasow specializes in intellectual property, appropriations, financial services, trade and technology.

Ms. Krasow began her political career in the United States Senate, where she worked for eight years in Senate Democratic Leadership, including four years as a Senior Assistant in the Senate Democratic Cloakroom (1994-1998) under Senate Majority Leader George Mitchell (D-ME) and Senate Democratic Leader Tom Daschle (D-SD), as well as then-Senate Democratic Whip Harry Reid (D-NV). During her tenure in the Cloakroom, Ms. Krasow advised Senators and staff on pending legislation and parliamentary procedures, while serving as liaison between the Democratic Leadership and the Members of the Senate. In addition, Ms. Krasow worked in the Executive Office of the Senate Sergeant at Arms and for Senator George J. Mitchell (D-ME).

Ms. Krasow has also worked as a Legislative Consultant for the law firm of Verner, Liipfert, Bernhard, McPherson and Hand, where she represented clients before Congress and the Executive Branch on a variety of issues, including trade, health care policy, electronic commerce, aviation, financial institutions and housing.

Ms. Krasow earned a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science from the University of Southern Maine.
